BROOKLYN'S CHILDREN'S DAY.

The Anniversary Committee Making the Final Arrangements.

70,000 Little Ones Expected to Participate This Year.

The Anniversary Committee of the Brooklyn Sunday-School Union is doing some hard work making the final arrangements for Brooklyn's great children's day.

The children's day is a feature of the city, and is one of the most popular of the city's annual events. It is a day when the children of the city are given a chance to show their talents and to have a good time. The committee is working hard to make the day a success, and to give the children a day that will be remembered for years to come.

Brooklyn may be considered as its real worth in some things, but every citizen in this country yields the palm to the City of Churches when it comes to the question of children and Sunday schools.

The Sabbath-school May-day parade or walk is a feature entirely unique to Brooklyn. Other cities may have similar parades, but none of them is so well recognized as the Brooklyn parade. It is a day when the children of the city are given a chance to show their talents and to have a good time. The committee is working hard to make the day a success, and to give the children a day that will be remembered for years to come.

The Anniversary Committee this year is composed of Charles E. Teale, W. McFarrell, C. C. Shelley, George W. Bush, M. D. Joseph P. Davenport and J. M. Hulwinko.

The change was made at the request of the teachers in both the Sunday and May-day schools. The anniversary coming in the middle of the week, the children for active public school children for several days afterwards. The May walk will be held on May 2, which is an innovation.

For years the walk has been held on Wednesday. The 26th falls on Friday this year.

GLUE FACTORY CLOSED UP.

Police Take Summary Action at the Peter Cooper Works.

Foreman Williams Arrested for Not Obeying Orders.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Gilbert, of Brooklyn, with a squad of police from the Twentieth Precinct visited the Peter Cooper glue factory on Newtown creek this morning and ordered August Williams, the foreman, to close the place.

The foreman refused to comply with the order and was put under arrest. The police then took possession of the factory and closed the doors.

The place had been formally adjudged a nuisance by the Health Board, which ordered the Company two months ago to abate the same. The mandate was ignored by the Company, with the result that summary action was taken this morning.

IN BROOKLYN PLAYHOUSES.

Russell's Comedians at the Columbia Theatre.

Russell's comedians were seen at the Columbia Theatre last night in their new piece, "A Society Fad." The company is principally the same as last year in the City Directory, and includes Dan Daly, William Cameron, John Jennings, Willis P. Sweetnam, J. C. Miron, Tyrone Power, Kate Cart, and Margaret Fitzpatrick with Angela Glover, the graceful dancer, as a feature. Not much is claimed for "A Society Fad," and it only affords the clever members of the company opportunities to display their peculiar talents. The entertainment was apparently thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience.

"A Trip to Chinatown" crowded the Park Theatre to the limit last night and entertained the audience as only Hoyt's productions can. The audience was a responsive one, and the play was a success. The play is a comedy, and is a good one. It is a play that will be remembered for years to come.

MUNGER'S BAIL FORFEITED.

The Importer Fails to Answer Miss Miller's Charge.

Said to Have Disappeared—A Warrant Out for His Arrest.

Julia Miller, of 422 Evergreen avenue, Brooklyn, appeared in the Adams Street Police Court this morning to press her complaint against Franklin Munger, a wealthy importer, living at 328A Monroe street, Brooklyn, who she says, insulted her while riding in an "L" train one morning last week.

When the case was called Munger did not respond, and his business partner, Mr. Jackson, a brother of ex-comptroller Theodore W. Jackson, told the judge that Munger had been missing from his home for several days.

His wife, to whom he was recently married, is prostrated at her home. She did not know of her husband's whereabouts, and Mr. Jackson asked for an adjournment.

Judge Walsh refused to grant the request, and Francis N. Penn, of 144 Lexington avenue, Brooklyn, who was Munger's surety, forfeited his bond of $200. A warrant was then issued for Munger's arrest.

Miss Miller is a pretty brunette, seventeen years of age, and of a highly respectable family. She is employed as a typewriter in New York.

Munger is a member of the firm of Jackson, Munger & Co., brokers, in Brooklyn at 65 Murray street, New York. The alleged insult took place last Tuesday morning, while Miss Miller was on her way to work.

Munger boarded the train at Nostrand avenue, and Miss Miller says, began at once to insult her.

When the train reached the Navy street station she had him arrested. Munger claimed it was a case of blackmail.

The Brooklyn City Railroad Company has been notified that their line and wires will strike or resist unless their pay is raised to ten cents.

The Company has been given two days to decide what it will do. President Lewis says he does not anticipate any serious trouble.

Similar demands have been made upon the officials of the Atlantic Avenue Railroad Company.

TWENTY LINEMEN "RESIGN."

And Brooklyn Is Threatened with an Electric Tie-Up.

The Anti-Conspiracy Law Gotten Over by a Technicality.

This morning twenty linemen of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, of Brooklyn, left work because the Company would not raise their pay to $3 per day, instead of $2.50 per day, the present rate.

Manager Sargeant says the total force of linemen or climbers employed by the Company numbers about thirty-five men. He says the entire force has not gone out, nor does he expect that they will. The men are foolish to take this action, I think," said Mr. Sargeant this morning.

"They belong to an association of electric workers that does not command the entire trade. We can easily replace the men who have gone out, and will not suffer very much in consequence ourselves. We have not yet decided what action we will take."

"They have made no definite appeal to me. All I know is that they are through minor officers. We will not allow the Association to run our business for us, that is certain."

The men do not consider that they are striking. They are acting in a manner to avoid the conspiracy law, and their action is well within the law. The men belong to the National Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. The Association of Electricians is a different organization.

OPENING THE FLOWER SHOW.

Madison Square Garden a Bower of Choice and Beautiful Plants.

Society Expected to Turn Out in Force This Evening.

The annual Spring flower show of the New York Florists' Club, which was to have been opened in Madison Square Garden at 11 o'clock this morning, was delayed for a couple of hours on account of the inability of the exhibitors to arrange their displays.

At 10 o'clock the vast amphitheatre was filled almost to the doors with plants and shrubs, representing almost every variety familiar to American horticulturists and gardeners.

The scene, even in its disorder, was strangely beautiful, but the army of helpers were fast making order out of chaos under the direction of skilled decorators and forming displays that will delight the multitudes who will probably visit the show during the week.

The walls, beginning with the lower tier of boxes and extending to the roof are decorated with the various shades of green, presented in the different species of cedar, Norway spruce, and pine and hardy palms. The effect is modest, but remarkably pretty.

At the entrance from Fourth avenue, the centre view is blocked by an ellipse of rhododendrons, covering a space of four square feet. It is remarkable for the variety of delicate colors, their harmonious blending in the arrangement and the delicate coloring of the plants.

The show will be open every day from 11 A. M. to 10 P. M. closing Sunday night. Each day from 12 to 1 o'clock, and every afternoon and evening there will be an orchestral concert under the direction of Gustave d'Apina.

Admission for the best exhibits, ranging from $5 to $50, have been offered by Mrs. G. S. Howland, Miss White, Mrs. L. J. Howland, Mrs. J. H. Howland, Mrs. J. C. Howland, Mrs. J. D. Howland, Mrs. J.
